

PLAYING TO LEARN

How to start and lead a community Play+Learn Group where adults and children participate together and their development and culture are valued and respected.

Sally Hansen and Kathy Modigliani

Good Beginnings Alliance-Hawaii

Table of Contents

Dedication	iii
Acknowledgements	iv
Preface	v

INTRODUCTION

Why Play+Learn Groups?	1
Identifying the Need for a Play+Learn Group	1

PART 1: GETTING STARTED

Selecting Play+Learn Group Leaders	2
Characteristics	2
Where to Look for this Special Person	2
Making the Right Decision	2
The Contract	3
Responsibilities of the Sponsoring Organization	3
Selecting the Site	4
Desirable Characteristics for a Site for Indoor and Outdoor Areas	4
Undesirable Characteristics of a Site (but not necessarily insurmountable)	4
Finding Families	5
Develop Relationships	5
Create a Flyer	5
Where to Distribute the Flyers	5
Sample Flyer	*6
Keeping Families Involved	7

PART 2: WORKING WITH PARENTS AND CAREGIVERS

Registration	8
Orientation	9
A Typical Day for You and Your Child at the Play+Learn Group	*10
Questions and Answers about Play+Learn Groups ..	*11
Agreements for Play+Learn Groups	*12
Adult Participant Volunteer Survey	*13
Donation Opportunities	*14
Consent to Release Photos Form	*15
Permission to be Included in Parent Directory	*16
Guiding and Supporting Parents and Caregivers	17
Postings to Place in the Appropriate Activity/Interest Areas	*18
Opportunities for Adult/Parent Education and Information Sharing	19
Suggested Topics for Adult Discussions	19
Share Information about Resources in Your Community	20
Possible Community Visitors to Play+Learn Group ..	20

*SAMPLE HANDOUT

PART 3: A PLAY+LEARN GROUP

The Schedule21

Babies and Toddlers Play+Learn Morning Schedule 22

2 1/2 to 4 year-olds Play+Learn Morning Schedule 23

Preparing the Environment24

 Suggested Equipment24

 Suggested Supplies24

 Suggested Basic Play Materials25

 Recipes for Consumable Materials26

Designing the Environment27

Planning—What to Do28

Transitions—Moving from One Activity to Another ..28

Areas of the Curriculum/Growth29

 Social and Emotional Development29

 Creative Development29

 Cognition/Problem Solving29

 Motor Development30

 Language and Literacy Development30

Integrating Curriculum for Inquiry31

Kindergarten Readiness and the Play+Learn Groups ..33

Including Children with Special Needs
in the Play+Learn Group34

 Identifying Children with Special Needs34

 The Play+Learn Group as a Natural Environment ..34

 Steps to Take for Special Help35

PART 4:
WORKING WITH PLAY+LEARN GROUP
VOLUNTEERS

Develop a Clear Mission and Goals for a Volunteer Program.36

Create Organizational Structure for the Program.36

Provide Volunteers with Meaningful Role, Training,
Supervision, and Support.36

Possible Roles for Play+Learn Group Volunteer(s) ..36

Sample Responsibilities/Schedule for a Volunteer ..37

PART 5:
HEALTH AND SAFETY GUIDELINES

Overall Responsibilities to Assure a Safe and Healthy Place to Play and Learn38

 For the Leader38

 For the Leader and All Adults Present at the Play+Learn Group38

Play+Learn Group Health Policy for Attendance ..39

Planning for Emergencies40

Inventory for First Aid Kit41

Accident/Injury Report Form
for Play+Learn Groups42

Health and Safety Checklists
for Play+Learn Groups43

 Indoor Safety Checklist43

 Supplies and Equipment Safety Checklist44

 Outdoor Play Area Safety Checklist45

 Food Safety and Preparation46

 Fix-It-Quick Safety Check Sheet
for Play+Learn Groups47

Play+Learn Group Snack Ideas48

Adults Can Help Children Learn
How to Develop Healthy Habits49

Hand Washing50

The Food Guide Pyramid51

Adults Can Help Children Learn
How They Can Be Safe52

APPENDIX

Play+Learn Group Start Up Check List53

Play+Learn Group Enrollment Survey55

Play+Learn Evaluation to be completed by Participating Adults56

NAEYC Code of Ethical Conduct57

Statement of Commitment to NAEYC Ethical Code of Conduct58